

Montana teamster and musician, Bruce Anfinson, releases new recording

There aren't too out there, but on his new recording, "The Ballad of Minnie and Pearl". of Belgian draft opening song on Reminiscence. To of the eleven "No, I never heard my days;" The Pearl is Montana! essence of a west- and some of us collection of songs written by Bruce, temporary song-traditional songs, many draft horse songs Bruce Anfinson has two ing, "The Ballad of Min- Minnie and Pearl, a team horses, inspired the this Musical Montana quote a phrase from one songs he recorded: anything like this in all Ballad of Minnie and Bruce truly captured the ern spirit we once knew endeavor to keep. This contains some originals some penned by con- smiths, along with some even an obscure one

Bruce's Mom used to sing to him as a child. You will be hard pressed to pick a favorite song as each will flavor a different emotion in you, from the pride of being a part of Montana, the memory of a life you once knew or wished you had, to the pure joy of sharing with friends and family a scrumptious rhubarb pie

His title song The Ballad of Minnie and Pearl is a true testament of who Bruce is. I've known Bruce for over 15 years as a fellow teamster up at Lone Mountain Ranch. He has been driving teams and playing music up at the ranch over 20 years. His music is the perfect combination of western history and downhome entertainment. About 13 years ago Bruce started his own wagon ride dinner during the summer at his ranch outside of Helena, MT., Last Chance Ranch serves up an all-you-can-eat prime rib dinner with (of course) huckleberry cheesecake for desert. Bruce sez "you can't sing about huckleberries and not give em some".

To get more information go to www.LastChanceRanch.biz.

To order CD, call Bruce at 406-442-2884. or go to www.bruceanfinson.com ; or www.cdbaby.com